Court No. - 48

Case :- WRIT - B No. - 3549 of 2023

Petitioner :- Nawab Singh
Respondent :- State Of U.P. And 14 Others
Counsel for Petitioner :- Pravesh Kumar Yadav
Counsel for Respondent :- C.S.C.,Brajesh Shukla

Hon'ble Saurabh Shyam Shamshery,J.

Sri Pravesh Kumar Yadav, learned counsel for petitioner after arguing for some time fairly submits that grievance of petitioner would be adequately addressed, in case, instead of allotment of his chak to proposed gata No. 449/1 which is 'Udaan Chak', be allotted near to his other original holdings.

Sri Kailash Nath Singh, Advocate holding brief of Anil Kumar Aditya, learned counsel appears for one of proposed respondent (who was made a party before Revisional Court), however, he has not been made a party in present writ petition.

Learned counsel further submits that prayer of petitioner could be considered, in case, allotments already made are not disturbed to their disadvantage.

In the aforesaid circumstances, without interfering with impugned order at this stage, this writ petition is disposed of with the direction/observation that in case an application for modification of order is filed at the instance of petitioner limited to above referred prayer, the Revisional Authority shall consider and passed appropriate order, if there is no legal impediment.
