Hon'ble Vivek Chaudhary,J.
Hon'ble Manish Kumar,J.

Heard learned counsel for petitioners, Sri Anand Dwivedi, learned counsel for respondent no.5 and learned standing counsel for State.

After arguing at some length, learned counsel for petitioners submits that all grievances raised by petitioners would be sufficiently met in case the same are considered and decided by respondent no.1 in a time bound manner.

Learned Standing Counsel states that the matter can be looked into by respondent no.1 to whom petitioners may represent their case.

In view thereof, petitioners are permitted to make a fresh detailed representation(s) to respondent no.1 Principal/Additional Chief Secretary. Department of Woman and Child Welfare, Government of U.P. Civil Secretariat, Lucknow, raising all their grievance, annexing therewith all the documents in support of their claim within a period of two weeks from today along with a certified copy of this order.

In case such a representation(s) is moved by petitioners, respondent no.1 shall consider and decide the same in accordance with law by a reasoned and speaking order within a period of two months from the date a certified copy of this order along with representation is placed before him.

It is made clear that this court has not applied itself on the merits of the case and all questions are left open to be considered and decided by the competent authority in accordance with law.

With the aforesaid directions, the writ petition is disposed of.
