Learned counsel for the petitioners and respondent No.2 state that the matter has since been resolved. The respondent No.2/complainant is also present. It is contended by the counsel for the parties that since the matter has been resolved, no useful purpose shall be served in continuing with the proceedings pursuant to FIR

No.1197/2006 dated 31.12.2006 under Section 420 registered at Police Station Dwarka against the petitioners.

Let the statement of respondent No.2 be recorded, who is identified by his counsel.

Statement of respondent No.2 has been recorded who states that he has settled with the petitioners and does not want to continue the proceedings pursuant to the above-said FIR which was registered on his complaint which was filed by the complainant on account of some confusion. Learned counsel for the parties states that no useful purpose shall be served in continuing the proceedings pursuant to the said FIR in view of the settlement arrived at between the parties. It shall also be in the interest of justice in case the said FIR and all proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed against the petitioners. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor, Mr.Sharma, also has no objection to quashing of the said FIR.

Consequently, in the totality of facts and circumstances, the FIR No.1197/2006 dated 31.12.2006 under Section 420 registered at Police Station Dwarka and all the proceedings emanating therefrom against the petitioners are quashed.

The petition is disposed of.
