Heard Mr. I. Alam, learned counsel appearing for the accused applicant and also heard Mr. M. P. Goswami, learned Addl. PP for the State.

2. This is an application under Section 483 of the BNSS, 2023 praying for granting bail to the accused applicant in connection with Hailakandi P.S. Case No.106/2026 registered under Section 22(c)/25 of the NDPS Act.

3. The prosecution story in brief is that an FIR was lodged on 04.07.2026 alleging that the accused applicant while travelling towards Gangapur via NH-06 in a Hero Honda Splender carrying yaba tablets for illegal sale and distribution within the Hailakandi Town under the jurisdiction of the Hailakandi Police station, the Police on getting prior information after putting up a naka checking apprehended the accused applicant and recovered 3.302 kg of Yaba Tablets.

4. On the basis of the FIR, the Police registered Hailakandi P.S. Case No. No.106/2026 and he was arrested on the same date i.e. on 05.07.2026 and since then, the accused applicant is behind bars.

5. The learned counsel appearing for the accused applicant submits that the accused applicant is having some health issues and he is not getting proper medical treatment inside the jail. He further submits that since the accused applicant is behind bars for the last 137 days, the accused applicant should be released on bail.

6. TCR in the instant has been received as well as a report from the Superintendent of Jail, Hailakandi regarding health condition of the accused applicant.

7. Mr. M. P. Goswami, learned Addl. PP opposes the bail prayer of the accused applicant stating that the health condition of the accused applicant is perfectly normal and he is getting the required medical attention inside the jail.

8. This Court has considered the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the parties as well as perused the report from the Superintendent of Jail dated 02.11.2026.

9. On perusal of the aforesaid medical report and on being convinced that the accused applicant is getting the required medical attention inside the jail, this Court finds no merit in the submission of the learned counsel appearing for the accused applicant.

10. Taking into account the aforesaid aspect, this Court is not inclined to grant any relief to the accused applicant. Accordingly, this bail application stands dismissed.
