2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused was found in illegal possession of 3 kg of Ganja. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the contraband involved is only an intermediate quantity of 3 kg and the petitioner has been suffering incarceration from 03.10.2026. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the investigation is almost completed and that the contraband involved is 3 kg of Ganja, which is an intermediate quantity. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the period of incarceration suffered by the petitioner from 03.10.2026, the stage of investigation, and the fact that the contraband seized is an intermediate quantity of 3 kg where the bar under Section 37 of the NDPS Act is not attracted, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
