the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found to be in possession of 50 liquor bottles each containing 180 ml. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has been incarcerated since 04.11.2026 and that the petitioner has four previous cases pending against him. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the Petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. From the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side), it is seen that though the petitioner has four previous cases pending against him. Considering the period of incarceration already undergone by the petitioner, the nature of allegations levelled against the petitioner, notwithstanding his reported previous involvements, in view of the small quantity of liquor recovered in the present case, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Arakkonam, and on further conditions that:
