			UKHC010205912026 BA1/2002/2026 Sahil --Applicant Versus State Of Uttarakhand --Respondent Hon'ble Alok Mahra, J. Mr. Rajveer Singh, Advocate for the applicant. 2. Mr. Chitrartha Kandpal, A.G.A. for the State. 3. The applicant, who is in judicial custody in connection with FIR/Case Crime No. 285 of 2025, under Sections 137(2), 64(2)(M) of BNS and Section 5(l)/6 of POCSO Act, registered at P.S.-Piran Kaliyar, District Haridwar, has sought his release on bail. 4. In this case, a missing report was initially lodged by the father of the victim that his daughter, who is more than 17 years of age, has left her home without informing them. Thereafter, victim was recovered from the company of the applicant and Sections 64(2)(M) of BNS and Section 5(l)/6 of POCSO Act were also added in the case. 5. Learned counsel for the applicant would submit that applicant has falsely been implicated in the case; that statements of the victim were recorded under Section 180 and 183 of BNSS and in her statement given under Section 183 of BNSS, she has stated that she is more than 17 years of age and she is in love with the applicant. As both belong to different religion, she had asked the applicant to solemnize their marriage, but, the applicant had refused and asked her to wait for some time. Despite this, victim herself forced the applicant to come to Roorkee and from Roorkee, they went to Delhi and thereafter to Chandigarh. She further told the applicant that she is more than 18 years of age and they also tried to solemnize their marriage in Masjid, but, due to absence of their parents, marriage could not be solemnized. 6. Learned State Counsel, on the other hand, has vehemently opposed the bail application. 7. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the records. 8. Having considered the submissions, under the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the age of the victim and her statements given under Section 180 and 183 of BNSS, this Court is of the view that it is a case fit for bail and the applicant deserves to be enlarged on bail. 9. The bail application is allowed. 10. Let the applicant be released on bail, on executing personal bond and furnishing two reliable sureties, each of like amount, to the satisfaction of Court concerned, subject the following conditions:- "i) The applicant shall attend the trial Court regularly, and, he will not seek any unnecessary adjournment. ii) The applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of this case. iii) The applicant shall not leave India without any prior permission of the trial Court." 11. It is clarified that if the applicant misuses or violates any of the conditions, imposed upon him, the prosecution will be free to move the court for cancellation of bail. (Alok Mahra J.) 20.11.2026 Ujjwal
