.....for the State

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that petitioner was arrested on November, 2024 and since then he is in custody and till date the case has not been committed to the Court of Sessions in spite of directions passed by this Court.

State opposes the prayer for bail and emphasizes on the heinousness of the offence. Case Diary has been produced.

I have taken into account the statement of the deceased when he was suffering and divulged the incident to the police officer. From the statement of the deceased when he was in an injured condition, I find that the vital blow was inflicted by one Achinta Biswas. So far as the present petitioner is concerned, petitioner was present and contributed to the assault. Having considered that the petitioner is in custody for about two years and till date the case has not been committed to the Court of Sessions, I find that there is no reason to further detain the petitioner and only on the grounds of long incarceration and without entering into the merits of the case further, I am inclined to release the petitioner on bail. Accordingly, petitioner being a lady, her prayer for bail is allowed.

As such, the petitioner, namely, Sanjit Biswas @ Khude shall be released on bail upon furnishing bond of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, one of whom must be local to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Krishnagar, Nadia.

If on bail, the petitioner shall be physically present on each and every date before the learned Trial Court and shall not leave the jurisdiction of district of Nadia without prior permission of the learned jurisdictional Court.

With the aforesaid observations, CRM (M) 2293 of 2026 is allowed.

The observations made above are only restricted for adjudication of the bail application and should not be considered a final opinion on the merits of the case.

All parties shall act in terms of server copy of the order downloaded from the official website of this Court.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
