1. The record reveals that, vide order dated 21.10.2026, the petitioner was directed to place on record a copy of his engagement order as well as the order whereby his services were disengaged.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner has filed an application bearing CM No. 7971/2026 seeking permission to place on record a copy of order No. 1153 of 2018 dated 05.11.2018, issued by the Senior Superintendent of Police, Rajouri (Chairman, Committee for Engagement of SPOs) relating to his engagement only.

3. For the reasons stated in application, coupled with the submissions made at the Bar, the same is allowed and document accompanying the application is taken on record with all just exceptions.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not been allowed to perform his duties as an SPO since 2023 and no disengagement order is issued as on date.

5. After arguing for a while, when the learned counsel for the petitioner was confronted with regard to the delay in filing the instant petition, he submits that the petitioner had already filed a detailed representations before the appropriate authority, however, the same did not receive due consideration, and, feeling aggrieved thereby, the petitioner was left with no option but to approach this Court by way of the instant petition.

6. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he would feel satisfied that in case the instant petition is treated as a representation and a direction is issued to respondent No.3 to accord due consideration to the representation alleged to have been filed by the petitioner.

7. Mrs. Monika Kohli, learned Senior AAG appearing on behalf of the respondents is not averse to the disposal of the instant writ petition by treating the same as a representation, provided the same is directed to be accorded consideration strictly under rule and as per law.

8. With the consent of learned counsel for the parties, the instant writ petition is taken up for final disposal by directing the respondent No.3 to treat the instant writ petition as a representation and to accord due consideration within a period of four weeks' from the date a copy of this order, along with writ petition and Annexures, is made available to the concerned respondent No. 3 strictly under rules and as per law. The consideration order which is likely to be passed may be forwarded to the petitioner through registered post.

9. In the aforesaid backdrop, the writ petition is disposed of, in the manner indicated above, along with all connected application(s).
