Represented by Adv. – A. Mohanty, ASC

CORAM:
THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SIBO SANKAR MISHRA
ORDER

Order No. 17.11.2026

05. 1. At the instance of the father of the victim girl, Kamarda P.S. Case No.185 of 2026 was registered on 08.08.2026 for the alleged commission of offence under Section 137(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023. The father of the victim girl approached this Court by filing the present CRLMP seeking the following relief:

> "The petitioner, therefore most humbly prays that this Hon'ble Court may be graciously pleased to direct the Opposite Parties to immediately rescue his minor daughter and register the case under The POCSO Act, 2012 and take action against the culprit and his unscrupulous company ;
>
> And any other order/orders may be passed as felt deem and proper;
>
> And for this act of kindness, the petitioner as in duty, bound shall ever pray."

2. The matter was taken up on several occasions, and eventually learned State Counsel was directed to obtain instructions in the matter. Today, learned State Counsel submits that upon completion of investigation, the police have already submitted the final form in the case. He has also drawn the attention of the Court to the statements of the witnesses, including the statement of the victim recorded under Section 183 of the BNSS, 2023.

3. It appears from the statement of the victim that her parents were making arrangements for her marriage, which caused her annoyance and out of anger, she left her parental home and went to Kendrapara. She further stated that upon coming to know about the registration of the police case, she returned home. Taking into consideration the statement of the victim and other circumstances, the investigating agency has submitted the final form.

4. In view of the subsequent developments, particularly the completion of investigation and submission of the final form, the relief sought for in the present CRLMP does not survive for consideration.

5. Accordingly, the CRLMP is disposed of.

6. However, the petitioner is at liberty to avail the appropriate procedural remedy available to him under law, if so advised.
