The Court made the following:

THE HONOURABLE SRI JUSTICE TARLADA RAJASEKHAR RAO

CIVIL REVISION PETITION No.3320 OF 2026

ORDER:

The Civil Revision Petition is filed by the petitioners/defendants seeking a direction to the learned trial Court for early disposal of O.S.No.115 of 2019, on the file of learned Principal Junior Civil Judge, Kadapa, filed by the respondent/plaintiff seeking permanent injunction and placed reliance on Judicial Notification No.3/SO/2016 issued by the High Court of Andhra Pradesh on 15.06.2016.

2. According to Rule 3 of the said notification, cases pertaining to partition, declaration, specific performance, possession, mandatory injunction, appeals, damages, easements, trademarks, copyrights, patents and intellectual property rights, shall be disposed of within 24 months from the date of appearance or deemed appearance of the defendant-respondent in the proceedings.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that despite lapse of six years, there is no progress in the case. Therefore, learned counsel prayed to direct the learned trial Court for disposal of the suit expeditiously.

4. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of High Court Bar Association, Allahabad Vs State of Uttarpradesh & Others[1] has categorically held that, constitutional Courts should not normally fix a time-bound schedule for disposal of cases pending in any Court. The pattern of pendency of various categories of cases pending in every Court, including High Courts, is different. The situation at the grassroots level is better known to the Judges of the Courts concerned. Therefore, the issue of giving out-of-turn priority to certain cases should be best left to the Courts concerned. The orders fixing the outer limit for the disposal of cases should be passed only in exceptional circumstances to meet extraordinary situations.

5. In view of the same, the present Civil Revision Petition is disposed of directing the learned trial Court to make an endeavour for early disposal of suit, in accordance with law, basing upon the seniority of pending cases. There shall be no order as to costs.

As a sequel thereto, miscellaneous petitions pending, if any shall stand closed.
