...RESPONDENT(S):

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed therewith, the High Court may be pleased to issue an appropriate Writ, Order or Direction, more particularly one in the nature of a Writ of Certiorarified Mandamus, calling for the records relating to the erroneous declaration of petitioners Engineering Mechanics (B.Tech) subject result as Fail twice despite passing the said examination in 2020 itself , and declaring her applied physics results as Fail in all 18

attempts by Respondent Nos.2 and 3 and to declare the same as illegal and arbitrary and consequently direct an independent evaluation of all the original answer scripts by a subject expert appointed by this Honble Court and directing Respondent Nos.2 and 3 to pay appropriate compensation and exemplary costs for their negligence, loss of academic years, mental agony and deprivation of M.Tech admission despite the Petitioner qualifying in APPGECET, and pass

IA NO: 1 OF 2026

Petition under Section 151 CPC praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed in support of the petition, the High Court may be pleased pleased to direct Respondent Nos.2 and 3 to preserve and produce all the original answer scripts relating to the Petitioners first-year B.Tech Physics examinations across all 18 attempts in a sealed cover for independent evaluation within a time-bound period, pending disposal of the writ petition and pass

Counsel for the Petitioner:

1. KRANTHI SRI VAKA

Counsel for the Respondent(S):

1. GP FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

The Court made the following:ORDER:

It is the specific case of the petitioner that the petitioner is pursuing B.Tech course and that he appeared for the B.Tech. First Year Physics examination but could not clear the said paper. It is further submitted that he has made 18 attempts to clear the said subject but has not cleared the same. It is submitted that the petitioner has cleared all the other subjects. However, insofar as the Physics subject is concerned, the petitioner has repeatedly failed for reasons best known to the 2nd respondent.

2. The learned Standing Counsel appearing for the 2nd respondent submits that the internal marks are assessed by the College in which the petitioner is studying. It is further submitted that the petitioner is seeking copies of the answer script relating to the B.Tech, Physics paper. However, the petitioner has not submitted any representation to the College or the University concerned seeking copies of the said answer script.

3. In view of the above circumstances, it is left open to the petitioner to submit an appropriate representation to respondent Nos.2 and 3 seeking copies of the answer script and also seeking re-evaluation of the same. Upon receipt of such representation, the respondents shall consider the same in accordance with law.

4. With the above observations, the writ petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.

As a sequel, miscellaneous applications pending, if any, shall stand closed.
