2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused allegedly trespassed into the house of the de-facto complainant, wrongfully confined his daughter and committed aggravated penetrative sexual assault and sexual harassment upon her, resulting in her pregnancy. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 27.08.2026. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the victim girl became pregnant due to the alleged sexual assault. Considering the gravity and seriousness of the offences, he strongly opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.
