1.100 kgs of ganja for the purpose of unlawful sale. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is arrayed as A3 and is an innocent person who has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the contraband allegedly seized is 1.100 kgs of ganja, which is an intermediate quantity, that the petitioner has no previous antecedents, and that he has been languishing in judicial custody. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner along with the co-accused was caught red-handed in illegal possession of 1.100 kgs of ganja, and the investigation is still pending. However, he fairly conceded that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the fact that the contraband involved is 1.100 kgs of ganja which falls under intermediate quantity (not attracting the rigour of Section 37 of the NDPS Act), the fact that the petitioner has no previous antecedents, and also taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
