Order

(1) The wife has filed the above petition to withdraw IDOP.No.129/2025 on the file of the Family Court, Tiruvallur, and to transfer the same to the Subordinate Court, Arakkonam, Ranipet District.

(2) The marriage of the petitioner and the respondent was solemnised on 04.12.2022, as per Hindu rites and customs in the presence of family elders, well-wishers and friends. Out of the wedlock, they have a female child. While so, matrimonial disagreements and disputes arose between the couple and consequently, the respondent filed HMOP.No.129/2025, on the file of the Family Court, Tiruvallur, for divorce on the ground of cruelty. The petitioner states that due to the respondent's conduct, she was forced to leave the matrimonial home and stay in her parental home at Arakonam. The petitioner further states that she is finding it extremely inconvenient to travel from Arakonam to Tiruvallur, along with her two year old girl child to attend the matrimonial proceedings instituted by the respondent. The petitioner therefore filed the present petition seeking the aforesaid relief.

(3) Though notice was served on the respondent and the respondent is represented by a counsel, there was no representation for the respondent on 17.08.2026. Therefore, the matter was adjourned to today. Even today, there is no representation for the respondent.

(4) It is trite that in matrimonial proceedings, the convenience of the wife takes precedence over that of the husband. In the present case, the petitioner is residing at Arakonam in her paternal home along with her two year old child. The petitioner states that she has to travel more than 70 kilometres up and down from Arakonam, along with her child to attend the matrimonial proceedings instituted by the husband. Considering that the petitioner has a two year old female child and is finding it inconvenient to travel a long distance to attend the matrimonial proceedings instituted by the husband, I find balance of convenience is in favour of the petitioner. Hence, I am inclined to allow the petition.

(5) Accordingly, the Transfer Civil Miscellaneous Petition is allowed and IDOP.No.129/2025 is withdrawn from the file of the Family Court, Tiruvallur, and is transferred to the file of the Subordinate Court, Arakonam, Ranipet District. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
