The Court made the following: ORDER

IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATE OF TELANGANA

AT HYDERABAD

THE HONOURABLE SMT. JUSTICE TANGIRALA MADHAVI DEVI

WRIT PETITION NO.39633 OF 2026

(CNR No.HBHC010815902026)

DATED : 23.11.2026

Between:

Ashish Reddy

... Petitioner

AND

The State of Telangana, rep. by its Principal Secretary, Home Department, Secretariat, Hyderabad and others

... Respondents

O R D E R

Alleging that the respondent police are repeatedly calling the petitioner and his family members to the police station through telephone calls without informing them about any complaint or FIR against them and without following due procedure of law, this Writ Petition has been filed.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner and respondent No.5 are married couple and that respondent No.5 left his company without any justifiable cause and a petition for divorce has been filed by the petitioner before the Family Court and the same is pending consideration and in the meantime, without informing any reasons therefor, the petitioner and his family including his married sister are being called to the police station. It is submitted that the petitioner had appeared before the police station on 9th, 18th and 19th November, 2026 and yet no information has been given to the petitioner as to why he was called to the police station and therefore, this Writ Petition has been filed.

3. Learned Assistant Government Pleader for Home Sri D. Pradeep, on written instructions, submitted that respondent No.5 has given a complaint and the same has been entrusted to the Inspector, Women & Child Safety Wing, Cyberabad on 09.11.2026 and as part of counselling, the petitioner and his family were called to the police station. It is submitted that the petitioner had attended accordingly on one occasion and the next counselling session was fixed after one week and without appearing for the counselling, the present Writ Petition has been filed. A copy of the complaint given by respondent No.5 is also enclosed to the written instructions.

4. In view of the above submissions, this Court observes that the dispute between the petitioner and respondent No.5 is a matrimonial dispute and that respondent No.5 has given a complaint and the petitioner has been called for counselling. However, it is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner that respondent No.5 has never appeared before the police for counselling.

5. In view of the same, the respondent police are directed to take action on the complaint of respondent No.5 strictly in accordance with law and if it is for counselling, the police shall ensure that both parties are present for counselling and shall not insist upon the parents and married sister of the petitioner to appear without there being any justifiable cause.

6. With the above directions, this Writ Petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.

7. Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, in this Writ Petition shall stand closed.
