Mr. Chitrartha Kandpal, Brief Holder for the State. 3. Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that applicant has falsely been implicated in the case; that applicant has been made an accused only on the pointing out of the other co-accused; that applicant was not arrested from the spot; that the only evidence established by the prosecution against the applicant is the CDR report indicating fourteen telephonic calls between the applicant and the other co-accused during the period from 01.02.2026 to 08.03.2026 and besides this, there is no other corroborative evidence and, as such, there is no money trail connecting the applicant to the alleged offence and as such applicant has been languishing in jail since 15.06.2026, thus, the applicant is entitled to be enlarged on bail. 5. Learned State Counsel, on the other hand, has vehemently opposed the bail application.

6. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the records.

7. Having considered the submissions, under the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that applicant has been made an accused only on the pointing out of the other co-accused and as such he was not arrested from the spot; furthermore, there is no money trail connecting the applicant to the alleged offence and as such applicant has been languishing in jail since 15.06.2026, this Court is of the view that it is a case fit for bail and the applicant deserves to be enlarged on bail.

8. The bail application is allowed.

9. Let the applicant be released on bail, on executing personal bond and furnishing two reliable sureties, each of like amount, to the satisfaction of Court concerned, subject the following conditions:-
