Mr. Vipul Painuly, A.G.A. for the State. 3. The applicant, who is in judicial custody in connection with FIR/Case Crime No. 0075 of 2026, under Sections 8/21 of NDPS Act, registered at P.S.-Sitarganj, District U.S. Nagar, has sought his release on bail. 4. Learned Counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant has falsely been implicated in the case; that applicant was arrested from the spot and from his possession 6.81 grams of smack was shown to have been recovered; that applicant is an drug addict himself and the alleged smack was meant solely for his personal consumption; that the fact about applicant being an addict himself has also come in the counter-affidavit filed by the State; that even otherwise, for offences involving personal consumption under Section 27 of the NDPS Act, the maximum punishment prescribed is imprisonment up to one year; that there is no criminal history against the applicant; and that applicant is languishing in jail since 21.02.2026, thus, the applicant is entitled to be enlarged on bail. 5. Learned State Counsel, on the other hand, has vehemently opposed the bail application. 6. Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the records. 7. Having considered the submissions, under the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that that there is no criminal history against the applicant and he is languishing in jail since 21.02.2026, this Court is of the view that it is a case fit for bail and the applicant deserves to be enlarged on bail. 8. The bail application is allowed. 9.
