			ABA No.467 of 2026 Reshma alias Munni .....Applicant Vs. State of Uttarakhand .....Respondent Hon'ble Pankaj Purohit, J. Mr. Kamaluddin, learned counsel for the applicant. 2. Mr. Tumul Nainwal, learned A.G.A. for the State. 3. Applicant has moved this anticipatory bail application in FIR No.0380 of 2026 dated 18.10.2026 under Section 11/3/5 of Uttarakhand Protection of Cow Progeny Act, 2007 registered at Police Station-Ranipur, District-Haridwar. 4. It is contended by learned counsel for the applicant that case of the prosecution is very sketchy as is narrated in the FIR that the co-accused were calling each other by name and on that basis the applicant was roped in the alleged crime. 5. He further submits that it is not possible for the applicant to run-away from the place of occurrence when the Police was standing at a distance of 50 meter. 6. It is further submitted that the applicant is a young lady of 29 years of age having three children, therefore, he deserves protection by this Court. 7. Per contra, learned counsel for the State submits that investigation is still going-on regarding involvement of the applicant in the crime. He further drew attention of this Court that from the place of occurrence 150 kg of beef was recovered along with cutting instruments.

			8. On instructions it is also informed to this Court that the applicant has no criminal antecedent. 9. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the FIR, this Court is of the view that the applicant deserves some protection primarily on the ground that she is a young lady having three children. 10. Without adverting to merits of the case, this Court feels it proper to grant anticipatory bail to the applicant. 11. Accordingly anticipatory bail application is allowed. 12. Applicant-Reshma alias Munni shall be released on bail, in the event of his arrest by the I.O., on his executing a personal bond and furnishing two reliable sureties of ₹15,000/-, each of the like amount, to the satisfaction of the I.O. concerned. (Pankaj Purohit, J.) 18.11.2026 SK
