He also submits whatever allegations are there regarding the administration of medicine Misoprost 200, are against the husband and, further, there are general allegations of marpeet against the applicants in the First Information Report. Therefore, keeping in view the age of applicant no.1 and applicant no.2 being the sister-in-law of the victim, they deserve to get protection from this Court. 5. Per contra, learned State Counsel submits that wife-Gulafshah was subjected to cruelty and, as per the medical report, there are injuries on her person.

He further submitted that there are also allegations that she was subjected to marpeet at the hands of the accused persons.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and having perused the FIR, this Court is of the view that there are only general allegations of marpeet and no specific role has been assigned to the applicants for committing *marpee*t. Further, the alleged administration of Misoprost 200 tablet is also attributed to the husband, who is not before this Court at this juncture.
