+ Crl. M. C. No. 3035/2008

This is a petition for quashing of FIR under Section 406/498-A/34 of Indian Penal Code registered at police station Krishna Nagar, Delhi.

Quashing of the aforesaid FIR is prayed for in this petition by the petitioners as well as respondent no.2 who is said to be the wife of petitioner Mani Chopra. It is stated by both sides that petitioner no.1 Mani Chopra and respondent no.2 have amicably obtained divorce by mutual consent and except this FIR, no other litigation is pending between the parties. Reliance is placed by both sides upon settlement deed Annexure-A vide which both the parties have settled their disputes out of the court. ASI Rampal Singh, Investigating Officer of this case is present in court and he has identified the complainant/respondent no.2 as well as the petitioner no.1 who are present in court. Status report filed is taken on record and the same is perused.

In terms of the settlement arrived at, petitioner no.1 has paid rupees fifty thousand in cash to respondent no.2 who is present in court and who has accepted the same and states that the FIR of this case be quashed.

Since both the sides have amicably settled their disputes with their own free will, I see no reason for continuing of the proceedings arising out of the aforesaid FIR. Consequently FIR No.228/2007 under Section 406/498-A/34 of Indian Penal Code registered at police station Krishna Nagar, Delhi is quashed and proceedings arises there from are also set at rest.

The present petition as well as pending applications stands disposed of.
