which resulted in filing of the present FIR on 30th November, 2023.

5. It is stated by the petitioners that the parties had entered into a settlement dated 31st October, 2026 in terms of which a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- was to be paid by the petitioners to respondent no.2.

6. Respondent no.2 who is present in court submits that she has not entered into any settlement with the petitioners. She further submits that she has been beaten up by her in-laws and forced to sign on the divorce papers as well as the aforesaid settlement agreement.

7. She further submits that she has been wrongfully confined by her in-laws and she would like to immediately move to her mother's house in Nangloi, Delhi.

8. Taking note of the submissions made on behalf of respondent no.2, there cannot be any question of quashing of the said FIR.

9. The Investigating Officer ('IO'), who is present in Court, has been asked to record the statement of respondent no.2 and initiate appropriate legal proceedings based thereon.

10. The IO shall safely escort respondent no.2 to her mother's house in Delhi.

11. The IO shall also ensure adequate security is provided to respondent no.2 as she perceives a threat from the petitioners.

12. In these circumstances, the present petition is dismissed.
