Order

21/11/2026

1. The instant writ petition has been preferred with the following prayer:-

> "It is, therefore, most humbly prayed that Your Lordships' may graciously be pleased to admit and allow this writ petition; call for and examine entire and record of the case
> a) By an appropriate writ, order and direction in the nature thereof the respondents may kindly be directed to give benefit of pay fixation under the Pay Scale Rules and give benefit of selections scales as applicable under the Rules on due date and accordingly revise pension and gratuity and commutation of pension and other pensionary benefits including earned leave etc as per revised rates. The respondents may kindly be directed to pay accumulated arrear of service and retirement benefit along with 9%interest from due date to the date of actual payment.

b) Any other order or relief as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper be also passed in favour of the petitioner."

2. By way of filing the instant writ petition, a prayer has been made for issuing directions to the respondents to grant the benefit of pay fixation to the petitioner under the Pay Scale Rules and granting benefit of selection scales as applicable under the Rajasthan Civil Services (Pension) Rules on the due date and thereafter, revise the pension and gratuity of the petitioner and grant him all other pensionary benefits.

3. Petitioner, present-in-person, submits that prior to the date of his retirement, a criminal case was registered against him for the offences punishable under Sections 7, 13(1)(d) and 13(2) of the PC Act, 1986 on 18.08.2016 and the same was lying pending and in the meantime the petitioner stood retired on 30.09.2026. Hence, the due retirement benefits including pension benefits were not extended to the petitioner. Petitioner submits that after trial, now the petitioner has been acquitted by the Special Judge, (PC Act) No.4, Jaipur in case No.21/2016, vide judgment dated 13.04.2026. Hence, the petitioner is entitled to all retiral dues including the relief as sought for in the instant writ petition. Petitioner submits that the issue involved in the instant case already been set at rest by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in the case of Krishan Kumar Sharma Vs. State of Rajasthan & Ors. while diciding in S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.11505/2022 on 27.03.2025, hence, the instant writ petition be disposed of in light of the similar directions issued in the case of Krishan Kumar Sharma (supra). Petitioner further submits that prior to approaching this Court, a detailed comprehensive representation was submitted by the petitioner before the respondents, mentioning all the above noted facts, but no heed has been paid to the said representation by the respondents. Hence, under these circumstances, he has approached this Court with the aforesaid prayer.

4. Per contra, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents opposed the arguments raised by the petitioner.

5. Without going into the merits and demerits of the case, but looking to the fact that prior to approaching this Court, the petitioner approached the State Authorities, by way of filing a representation by annexing the copy of the judgment of his acquittal.

6. It appears that the said representation submitted by the petitioner is still lying pending for adjudication on its merits and the same has not been decided by the respondents for the reasons best known to them.

7. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, this Court deems it just and proper to grant liberty to the petitioner to file one more additional representation before the respondents. In case such representation, along with the copy of the judgment of his acquittal is submitted by the petitioner before the respondents within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, it is expected from the respondents to decide the same expeditiously, preferably within a period of 8 weeks thereafter, by way of passing a reasoned and speaking order.

8. With the aforesaid observation and directions, the instant writ petition stands disposed of.

9. Stay application and all pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
