----Respondents

For Petitioner(s) : Mr. M.S. Raghav
Mr. Vishvas Saini

JUSTICE ANOOP KUMAR DHAND

Order

17/11/2026

1. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that when the petitioners' named down the seniority list vide impugned seniority list dated 07.10.2026, they approached the Rajasthan Civil Services Appellate Tribunal, Jaipur (for short 'the Tribunal') assailing the said order by way of filing an appeal.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that the stay application was submitted before the Tribunal along-with the aforesaid memo of appeal and when the arguments were heard on 22.10.2026 before the Tribunal a statement was made on behalf of the State counsel that the respondent-Department is not going to convene DPC meeting. Relying upon such statement of the State counsel, the case was deferred for 26.10.2026 and thereafter, the case has been posted for 07.12.2026.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that on 03.11.2026, the respondents have directed certain candidates to furnish their details for participation in DPC and tomorrow is the date fixed for convening the DPC meeting. Hence, under these circumstances, the petitioners have approached this Court by way of filing the instant writ petition seeking appropriate directions.

4. Heard and considered the submissions made at the Bar and perused the material available on record.

5. Perusal of the record indicates that against the seniority list dated 07.10.2026 published by the respondent-Department, the petitioner has already approached the Tribunal by way of filing an appeal under Section 4A of the Rajasthan Civil Services (Service Matters Appellate Tribunals) Act, 1976 along-with the stay application.

6. When the arguments were heard before the Tribunal, a statement was made by the State counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents that they are not going to convene any DPC meeting. Hence, relying upon such statement of the State counsel, the case was deferred from 22.10.2026 to 26.10.2026 and now for 07.12.2026. Now, while the appeal is still lying pending for its adjudication on merits before the Tribunal, in the meantime, the respondents have issued an order dated 03.11.2026 inviting applications from certain candidates to participate in the DPC by way of submitting the form, with regard to their children, in appropriate format.

7. The matter is required to be heard and decided by the Tribunal on its merits on the basis of submissions made by both the sides.

8. This Court deems it just and proper to dispose of the instant writ petition with an expectation from the Tribunal to make all possible endeavours to decide the appeal expeditiously as early as possible preferably within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

9. In the meantime, the respondents are directed to consider the case of the petitioners for promotion in the DPC, but the result of the petitioners shall not be declared without seeking prior permission of the Tribunal and their result shall be kept in a sealed cover.

10. With the aforesaid observations, the instant writ petition stands disposed of. Stay application as well as all pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
