Counsel for the respondent has put in appearance. I have heard learned counsels on the aspect of grant of time to the petitioner to vacate the suit premises. The petitioner is granted three months' time to vacate the suit premises i.e. upto 30.11.2009. This is subject to the filing of the usual undertaking by the petitioner in this Court within two weeks from today. The undertaking shall state that the petitioner would vacate the premises on or before 30.11.2009 and deliver peaceful and vacant possession to the respondent on or before that date. She shall further undertake that she will not part with possession of the tenanted premises or sublet the same to any other person. She will also undertake not to damage the premises in any manner and that she shall pay the use and occupation charges regularly and without any default. In case the undertaking is filed, as aforesaid, with advance copy to the respondent, the same shall be deemed to be accepted by the Court. In case the same is not so filed, it shall be open to the respondent to execute the eviction order.

Petition stands disposed off.
