23.07.2010

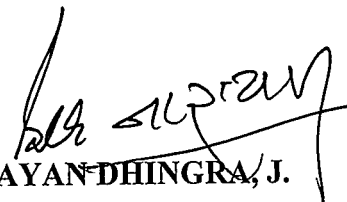

Quashing of F.I.R. Nos.232 and 233 of 2007 is sought by the petitioners on the basis of compromise arrived at between the parties. These two F.I.R.s are cross F.I.R.s between the parties, who at the time of incident were neighbours of each other and tried to settle their dispute by show of force. The parties later on compromised with each other and have settled their dispute with the help of Mediation Cell. Compromise arrived at between the parties in the Mediation Cell has been placed on record.

In view of the fact that parties have compromised and the fact that the injuries received were simple in nature although they were booked under Sections 308/323 and other provisions of IPC, I consider that it is a fit case where parties should be allowed to compromise and F.I.R.s should be quashed.

The F.I.R.s and proceedings emanating from these F.I.Rs. are quashed. The parties shall deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- each with Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee as costs.

SHIV NARAYAN DHINGRA, J.
