On the complaint of respondent No. 2 FIR No. 488/2007 under Sections 448/506 IPC was registered at police station Dr. Ambedkar Nagar. Certain civil disputes were also pending between the parties. Bone of contention was a plot of land bearing No. J-510-136 Western Avenue, Sainik Farms, New Delhi. Now, parties have resolved all their disputes with regard to this plot, inasmuch as, a compromise decree has been passed by the Additional District Judge (South) on 2nd May, 2009 in Suit No. 80/2009. Respondent No. 2, who is present in the Court, states that she is no more interested in pursuing her complaint any further. In terms of settlement, ₹ 10 lacs has already been paid by the petitioner to respondent No. 2 before the court of A.D.J. (South). Remaining settled amount of ₹ 10 lacs has been paid by the petitioner to respondent No. 2 in the Court today through demand drafts, details whereof have been mentioned in the para 8 of the petition.

In view of the compromise arrived at between the parties, I am of the view that no fruitful purpose would be served by compelling the parties to continue to litigate a protracted trial. In the larger interest I quash the FIR No. 488/2007 under Sections 448/506 IPC registered at police station Dr. Ambedkar Nagar and consequent proceedings emanating therefrom.

Petition is disposed of in the above terms.

Dasti.
