Statement of the complainant/respondent No.2 recorded. The parties have entered into a written Memorandum of Understanding dated 06th September, 2010. The Memorandum of Understanding, according to the learned counsel for the parties, has already been implemented. A Civil Suit filed by the complainant/respondent No.2 against the petitioner being Suit No.635/2009 has already been withdrawn from the Court of Civil Judge vide order dated 15th September, 2010.

The allegations in the FIR were that the complainant/respondent No.2 alongwith the petitioner and others, including her husband were partners in a firm M/s Ever Green Industries and after the death of her husband, the petitioner obtained her signatures on certain papers on a false pretext and

Considering the nature of the dispute between the parties and an amicable settlement thereof and also considering the fact that the parties are related to each other, no useful purpose would be served from continuing the proceedings that were initiated by the complainant/respondent No.2 against the petitioner.

Hence, FIR No.36/2010, under Sections 420/467/468/471/175/506 IPC registered at Police Station Anand Parbat and the proceeding arising therefrom are hereby quashed, subject to the petitioner's depositing Rs.50,000/- with Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee within a week from today and depositing the receipt in the Court with a copy of the receipt to the Investigating Officer.
