This petition has been made for quashing of FIR. The complainant and the accused persons are present in the Court and state that they have compromised the matter. FIR No. 311/2008, u/s 308/452/506/34 IPC, P.S. Jahangir Puri was registered on the complaint that accused, who was telling wife of the complainant to accompany him or she would be done to death. He along with his other associates picked up a quarrel with complainant and injured the complainant and others. Injuries were caused on the parietal region and on head of the injured persons.

It is submitted by the petitioners that parties want to live peacefully and that is why they have entered into this compromise.

In order to ensure that the accused persons do not again pick up quarrel with anyone else in the area and live peacefully, I consider it appropriate that instead of quashing the FIR, further proceedings in the FIR be stayed and the accused persons be directed to execute bonds of good behaviour for a period of two years. It is, therefore, directed that a bond of good behaviour be executed by all the accused persons individually in the sum of Rs. 50,000/- with one surety in the like amount each for a period of two years, to the satisfaction of concerned trial court. Subject to executing these bonds by the accused persons, further proceedings in the FIR shall not be carried out. Report of Probation Officer be obtained from time to time.

It is made clear that during this period of two years if any incident of crime of accused persons is reported, this FIR shall stand revived.

The petition stands disposed of.
