This is a petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C for quashing of the FIR No.237/2008 under Section 279/304A IPC registered at Police Station Civil Lines and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the ground that the parties inter se have compromised the matter.

The parties are identified by their respective counsel. Complainant /Respondent Deepmala Nishad who is mother of the Baby Gulshan (deceased) and at whose instance the present FIR was lodged is present in person. Baby Gulshan met with a fatal accident and succumbed to her injuries. She states that she has compromised the matter with the petitioner out of her own free will, consent and volition and without there being any coercion or pressure of any kind. She further states that she does not intend to pursue the present FIR anymore. A sum Rs.50,000/- has been paid today in the Court by the petitioner to the complainant.

Having regard to the fact that the parties have compromised the matter, no useful purpose would be served by keeping the present FIR alive. Consequently, the petition is allowed and FIR No.237/2008 under Section 279/304A IPC
