These are two cross cases filed by the parties resulting in filing of two FIRs being Nos.585/2001 filed under Section 147/148/323/427/332/353/186 IPC and FIR No. 256/2002 under Section 147/149/325/308/452/435 IPC registered at P.S. Najafgarh.

All the parties are the neighbours of the same village. It is stated that they have compromised the matter against each other fully and voluntarily and do not have any complaint against each other.

It is now pointed out by the learned APP that one of the injured

Constable Satbir, is now deceased. It is stated by counsel for the State as well as counsel for the respondents that his wife Bala Devi has compromised the matter. She is present in the court today and confirms about the compromise having taken place.

In view of the compromise entered into between the parties, no useful purpose will be served by continuing with FIR No. 585/2001 filed under Section 147/148/323/427/332/353/186 IPC and FIR No. 256/2002 under Section 147/149/325/308/452/435 IPC registered at PS Najafgarh. Consequently, FIR Nos. 585/2001 under Section 147/148/323/427/332/353/186 IPC and 256/2002 under Section 147/149/325/308/452/435 IPC registered at PS Najafgarh and all proceedings emanating therefrom are hereby quashed. Bail bonds of the petitioners are cancelled and their sureties discharged.

The petitions stand disposed of.
