④

before 2nd May, 2011. The counsels state that the awards impugned in these petitions be modified in accordance with the settlement.

2. The settlement arrived at between the parties is found to be legal and in the interest of parties. In accordance with the settlement, the awards are modified by directing that the petitioner shall pay to each of the respondent workman a sum of ₹20,000/- on or before 2nd May, 2011 in full and final settlement of all claims whatsoever of the respondent workman against the petitioner including under the awards aforesaid and/or towards gratuity, provident fund and other dues etc.

3. The petitions are disposed of leaving the parties to bear their own costs.
