decree of mutual consent vide order dated 03rd September, 2011. Both the petitioners and the respondent No. 2 state that they have compromised the matter. In terms of the compromise arrived at between the parties, a total sum of Rs. 17,50,000/- was to be paid to the respondent No. 2 by the petitioner No. 1 in four installments of Rs. 4,37,500/- each. Three installments of Rs. 4,37,500/- have already been paid and balance payment is being paid today to her, which is admitted by the respondent No. 2.

Respondent No. 2 states that she has compromised the matter with the petitioners of her own free will and volition and without any pressure or coercion and now, she is left with no grievance against the petitioners and she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

In view of the foregoing and the fact that the parties have amicably resolved all their disputes, no useful purpose would be served by continuing with the FIR. Accordingly, FIR No. 25/2010 under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC registered at P.S. Nanak Pura and all the consequential proceedings arising out of the same are hereby quashed. Bail bonds of the petitioners are cancelled and their sureties are discharged.

The petition stands disposed of.
