Respondent No.1/Complainant have entered into a Compromise. In terms of the settlement, marriage between the Petitioner No. 1 and Respondent No. 1/complainant has been dissolved by a decree of divorce by mutual consent on 15th April, 2011. As part of full and final settlement of all the claims of the Respondent No. 1, the Petitioners have to pay a sum of Rs.1,30,000/- out of which she had already received a sum of Rs.80,000/- and the balance amount of Rs.50,000/- in cash has been received by her in Court today. In view of the amount having received, no further claims of Respondent No.1 remains. She states that in view of the settlement, she does not wish to pursue the FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Consequently, FIR No.220/2009 under Sections 498A/34 IPC registered at PS Krishna Nagar and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

Parties have signed this order sheet in acknowledgment of their
