The parties are present in person. The petitioners are identified by their counsel and respondent No.2 is identified by the counsel as well as by the I.O.

The petitioner present in the court states that he was able to contact the photographer Manoj and has also been able to collect the video and photographs of his marriage. With regard to negatives of photographs, it is stated that the photos were taken by the Digital camera which does not have negatives.

The parties have arrived at a settlement. In pursuance thereto, the petitioner Vinod Kumar and respondent Anjna have obtained divorce by mutual consent and are living separately. The photographs in original and video cassette have been handed over to the respondent Anjna. In pursuance of the agreement a pay order of Rs.50,000/- has been given to the respondent Anjna by the petitioner Vinod Kumar today in the court. In view of this, the respondent Anjna is now left with no claims or grievances against the petitioners.
