The complainant/Respondent No. 2 Mr. S.C. Jain who is present in person and is identified by his counsel states that in view of the settlement he has received a sum of Rs. 60,000/- and Rs. 1 lakh is lying deposited with the Learned Trial Court which will be received by him pursuant to the quashing of FIR. He further states that in view of the settlement between the parties, he does not want to pursue the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Learned APP on instructions from Sub-Inspector K.K. Mishra states that besides the Petitioner there is no other accused involved in the present FIR and besides Respondent No.2 interest of no other complainant/victim is involved in the FIR.

In view of the fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences of their own free will, volition and without any coercion and no useful purpose will be served in continuance of the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto.

Consequently, FIR No. 427/1999 under Sections 420/468/471/34 IPC registered at PS Connaught Place and proceedings pursuant thereto are hereby quashed.

The Respondent/complainant will be entitled to receive the amount of ₹1 lakh along with the interest that may have accrued thereon lying before the learned Trial Court.

Parties have signed this order sheet in acknowledgment of their statements made before this Court.

The petition and the pending application are disposed of. Order dasti.
