This is a petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. for quashing of an FIR No. 305/2011 dated 5th October, 2011 PS Keshav Puram, New Delhi under Sec. 287/338/374 of IPC.

The complainant Viru who is present with his father Gaya Singh is identified by the I.O. The petitioner is also present. Viru was working in the factory of the petitioner and while working on a machine he met with an accident on 3rd October, 2011 and got grievous injury on his hand whereupon FIR mentioned above was registered. The parties have arrived at an amicable settlement and Viru continues to work in the same factory of the petitioner.

I have examined the petitioner who states that he has compromised with the petitioner under the guidance of his father with his free will and without any inducement or threat. He states that after the accident, the petitioner had taken him to the hospital. He also states that he was working on the machine of his own and that accident occurred due to his negligence.

Since the complainant Viru has compromised with the petitioner and still continues to work with him and has amicably settled with the petitioner, I feel that no useful purpose will be served in continuing with the proceedings and the aforesaid FIR. Consequently, the FIR and all the proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

The petition stands disposed of.
