1. Admittedly, the order of which contempt is alleged, was against the CVC only. However, in addition to making CVC and three officers of CVC as respondents/contemnors, the appellant also impleaded respondents no. 4 to 10 who are/were officers of HUDCO. The learned Single Judge, vide order dated 11th November, 2011 ordered deletion of these respondents no.4 to 10 from the array of parties on the ground that the compliance of any order was not to be made by these respondents. The appellant, thereafter, filed review petition which has also been dismissed vide impugned order date 13th July, 2012.

2. After hearing the appellant, we find that there was no occasion to implead respondents no. 4 to 10 in the contempt petition and they were rightly deleted from the array of parties. The present appeal is dismissed.
