CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANMOHAN

ORDER
% 01.10.2012

Present two writ petitions have been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. seeking quashing of two cross FIRs on the ground that the matters have been amicably resolved between the parties. While FIR No. 137/2012 registered with Police Station Govind Puri under Sections 323/341 IPC has been filed by Mr. Rohan Dua, FIR No. 191/2012 registered with Police Station Govind Puri under Sections 323/341/34 IPC has been filed by Smt. Angoori Devi.

Mr. Mohit Mathur as well as Mr. Narendra Gautam, learned counsel for the petitioners have drawn attention of this Court to the Memorandum of Settlement dated 9th August, 2012 executed between Mrs. Angoori Devi and Mr. Rohan Dua by virtue of which all disputes between the parties have been amicably resolved.

Both the petitions for quashing are supported by affidavit of their respective complainants. Both complainants are personally present and have been identified by IO/SI Dharmendra Kumar as well as their respective counsel. They state that in view of the aforesaid Memorandum of Understanding they are not interested in pursuing their respective FIRs any further.

5

Consequently, this Court sees no purpose in continuing the present proceedings any further and accordingly, FIR No. 137/2012 registered with Police Station Govind Puri under Sections 323/341 IPC and FIR No. 191/2012 registered with Police Station Govind Puri under Sections 323/341/34 IPC as well as any other consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed.

At this stage, learned counsel for petitioners voluntarily state that the petitioners in each case would deposit Rs. 5,000/- with Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee within one week. The aforesaid statements are accepted by this Court.

The petition stands disposed of in the aforesaid terms.

Order dasti.
