CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANMOHAN

ORDER

30.10.2012

Mr. Kanwal Singh, learned counsel for respondent No. 2 states that in pursuance to the last order, respondent No. 2 has deposited the entire money ordered to be paid by the Additional Sessions Judge with the Registrar General of this Court.

7
Report of the Registry confirms that Rs. 2,60,000/- has been deposited by respondent No. 2 in both the revision petitions.

Respondent No. 2, who is personally present in Court, states that he has no objection if the petitioner is allowed to withdraw the aforesaid amount of Rs. 2,60,000/- in full and final settlement of all his claims.

Mr. Dhan Mohan, learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions of Mr. Umesh Chand Yadav, who is personally present in Court, states that in the event, the petitioner is allowed to withdraw the aforesaid amount of Rs. 2,60,000/- deposited by respondent No. 2, the petitioner would not like to press the present revision petitions or any other proceedings against respondent No. 2.

Keeping in view the aforesaid agreement between the parties, the petitioner is permitted to withdraw Rs.2,60,000/- deposited by respondent No. 2 with the Registry of this Court. For this purpose, list the matter before the Registrar General on 05th November, 2012. On the said date, the Registrar General shall hand over an account payee cheque in favour of the petitioner for the aforesaid amount of Rs. 2,60,000/- to the learned counsel for the petitioner.

Both the counsel assure this Court that neither of the parties would file or continue with any proceeding filed against each other. The statements and undertakings given by both the parties are accepted by this Court and both parties are held bound by the same.

With the aforesaid directions, the present petitions stand disposed of.

MANMOHAN, J
