ORDER
% 24.05.2013

It has been averred in the writ petitions that the disputes have now been settled and a compromise deed reducing the terms of settlement into writing has been arrived at between the parties on 15.01.2013. Copy of the settlement deed is placed on record at pages 16 to 18.

The learned Additional Public Prosecutor points out that the FIRs cannot be quashed entirely but can be quashed only in so far as they relate to the petitioners. The learned counsel for the petitioners agrees and states that even the prayers of the petitioners are confined to only quashing of the FIR qua the petitioner.

Taking note of the compromise deed as well as submissions of the parties before me and having regard to the terms of the compromise deed which are affirmed before me by the parties, I quash the FIR ~~FOR~~ ⁴. No.96/2011 dated 17.05.2011 registered at P.S. New Friends Colony and No.437/2011 dated 03.11.2011 registered at P.S. Malviya Nagar, New Delhi, but only so far as the petitioners are concerned.

The writ petitions are allowed as indicated above.
