present batch vide my judgment dated 24.05.2013 in W.P.(C.) No. 5648/2010 & other connected matters.

4. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record, I dispose of the present batch of writ petitions in terms of my judgment dated 24.05.2013 in W.P.(C.) No. 5648/2010 & other connected matters.

5. Accordingly, I direct as follows:

6. I allow these writ petitions and quash the impugned orders passed under Section 14-B and appellate orders in each of these cases. The matter is remanded back to the Assistant Provident Fund Commissioners concerned for re-adjudication of the show cause notices issued to the petitioner under Section 14-B of the Act. The APFC concerned shall provide to the petitioner the basis on which it propose to raise the demand under Section 14-B and charge interest under Section 7Q. The submissions that the petitioner may advance shall also be considered and reasoned orders shall be passed by the APFC concerned dealing with the pleas of the petitioner. In case the petitioner is aggrieved and prefers further appeals before the Appellate Tribunal, the Appellate Tribunal shall also consider the submissions that the petitioner may advance in its appeals and pass reasoned orders after duly considering the same. Needless to state that the APFC and the Appellate Tribunal shall be guided by the relevant rulings applicable in the facts of each case.

7. The petitions stand disposed of in the aforesaid terms leaving the parties to bear their own costs.

8. The amount deposited by the petitioner in pursuance of the orders passed under Section 14-B and 7Q shall continue to remain in deposit with the respondent, and the final appropriation of the same shall abide by the further orders that may be passed.
