conditions of the settlement, as broadly recorded in the order dated 16.5.2013.

2. Counsels for the parties state that the terms and conditions of the settlement arrived at between the parties have been detailed in para 3 of the application and in furtherance thereto, the defendant/ICICI Bank has handed over pay orders for the amount payable to the plaintiffs and in turn, the plaintiffs have returned the security amount to the defendant/ICICI Bank.

3. In view of the aforesaid settlement arrived at between the parties, counsels for the parties jointly state that the present suits may be disposed of.

4. The Court has perused the present applications. The same have been signed by Mr. Kuldeep Sobti, power of attorney holder of the plaintiffs as also by the authorized signatory of the defendant/ ICICI Bank and their respective counsels. The same is supported by the affidavits of the signatories to the applications. In view of the aforesaid settlement arrived at between the parties of their own free will and volition and without any undue influence or coercion from any quarters, there appears no legal impediment in accepting the present applications.
