By the present petition the petitioner seeks regular bail in case FIR No.292/2016 under Sections 308/354/452/509/506/34 IPC registered at PS Bawana on the complaint of complainant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been in custody for more than two months and charge-sheet qua him has already been filed. Recoveries if any whatever required to be made have already been done and thus the petitioner be released on bail.

Learned APP for the State opposing the bail submits that the two other co-accused are yet to be arrested and the petitioner is the main accused.

In the above-noted FIR the complainant alleged that when she was present in her house along with her husband Mukesh and her daughter, the petitioner who is the cousin brother of her husband knocked the door at 10.20 PM. Petitioner was accompanied by 3-4 other persons who were carrying danda sticks and iron rod. The petitioner pushed aside the complainant and attacked her husband Mukesh with iron rod and gave blows on his head. He also misbehaved with the complainant and inappropriately touched her and abused her. Mukesh was rushed to the hospital and as per the MLC he received grievous injuries.

Be that as it may the petitioner has been in custody for more than two months. Charge-sheet has already been filed. The co-accused Deepak has been granted bail whereas Prince has been granted anticipatory bail. The trial is likely to take some time for the reason two accused are yet to be arrested. Recoveries have already been made from the petitioner.

Consequently, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of ₹25,000/- with one surety of the like amount subject to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court further subject to the condition that he will not leave the country without the prior permission of the Court concerned.

Petition is disposed of. Order dasti.
