HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE R.K.GAUBA

JUDGMENT

158

R.K.GAUBA, J (ORAL):

1. The suit CS(OS) 966/2008 (hereinafter referred to as "the first suit") was instituted in May, 2008 by Mr. Jaspreet Singh Anand and Mr. Gursimar Singh Anand, sons of late Mr. Kultaran Singh Anand, (hereinafter referred to as "the plaintiffs of the first suit") initially against four defendants. By way of amendment incorporated later, another defendant was added, thus, bringing in the array five defendants, they being Gurdev Singh Anand, Mr. Iqbal Singh Anand, Mr. Surjit Singh Anand, Ms. Saran Pal Kaur Anand and Ms. Savinder Kaur Chandhiok, (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the defendants of the first suit"). It may be mentioned here that first said three defendants are sons of Late Shri Harnam Singh Anand while the fourth and fifth defendants are daughters of late Shri Harnam Singh. It may also be added that Mr. Kultaran Singh Anand, whose successors- in -interest are the plaintiffs of the first suit, was pre-deceased son of Late Smt. Harbans Kaur wife of Late Shri Harnam Singh.

2. The plaintiffs of the first suit, CS(OS) 966/2008, sought a decree for partition of the estate left behind by late Smt. Harbans Kaur, it being properties described as under:-

- (i) Plot No. 20, Block 7 Area 1866.666 sq. Yds., situated in Kirti Nagar Industrial Area, Najafgarh Road, Delhi;
- (ii) 59/7, New Rohtak Road, New Delhi; by metes and bounds thereby demarcating the shares of the plaintiffs and defendants and handing over the possession of their share in said property to the plaintiffs.

3. In July, 2009, the above said plaintiffs of the first suit, CS (OS) 966/2008 came with another suit it being CS(OS) 1340/2009 (hereinafter referred to as "the second suit") now joining their mother Ms. Daman Pal Kaur as co-plaintiff (the first plaintiff), it being a suit for recovery of Rs. 3,02,18,219/- along with pendente lite and future interest, directed against Mr. Iqbal Singh, son of Late Shri Harnam Singh Anand (second defendant in the first suit), the cause of action claimed in the said second suit pertaining to fixed deposit receipt which had been taken out by Mr. Kultaran Singh during his life time.

4. In August, 2010, the five defendants of the first suit (CS(OS)966/2008) jointly filed CS(OS) 1677/2010 (hereinafter referred to as "the third suit") impleading the plaintiffs of the first suit as the defendants, the prayer made therein being for partition and rendition of accounts in respect of the estate left behind by Smt. Harbans Kaur and late Mr. Kultaran Singh Anand, the properties included therein having been described as under:-

- (i) 59/7, New Rohtak Road, New Delhi.
- (ii) 7/20, Kirti Nagar, Industrial Area, New Delhi.
- (iii) PROPERTIES IN IRAN
 - a) Shop No. 8, Sharqi, Saadi, Janoobi Jadeed, Tehran.
 - b) Shop No.566 (Old No. 137) Avenue Amir Kabir, Tehran.
 - c) Property known as Damavand Villa, Bhaghal – E-Morgdari Farsian Kalepa, Damavand – Iran.
 - d) Office premises no.319, 3rd Floor, Passage Kashani Avenue, Amir Kabir, Tehran with Stocks in trade and shares of company Sherkate Kultaran International Ltd. Said company has 50% share holding in the name of deceased Kultaran Singh. Remaining 50% share holding belonged to Parduman Singh Chandhiok and Parvinder Singh Chandhiok who are son & grandson of Mrs. Tej Kaur.
 - e) Telephone No. 88836265 and 33391347. (Very valuable assets according to Iran).

- f) Bank Accounts in Iran which were operated upon by Shri Kultaran Singh (deceased) in Tehran and outside Tehran which were initially operated upon by Great Grand Father and/or Great Grand mother.*
- (iv) Flat No.409, admeasuring 498 sq. ft. In Lusa Tower at Azadpur, Delhi.*
- (v) Flat No.TF-01, admeasuring 1400 sq. ft. 1/6, 3rd Floor, East Patel Nagar, New Delhi-110008.*
- (vi) Plot No.G-3/14, DLF Phase-I, Gurgaon (Haryana) admeasuring 500 sq. yds".*

5. All the three suits as mentioned above were initially contested. During the course of pendency, upon the request of the parties, they were referred to Mediation Centre at High Court (Samadhan) for exploring the possibility of an amicable resolution of the dispute, under order dated 18.7.2016 of a learned division bench in FAO (OS) 186/2016. The mediation process has resulted in an amicable resolution of the dispute whereby the parties have entered into and executed a family settlement dated 23rd August, 2016 which was submitted by the mediator to the learned division bench in seisin of FAO(OS) 186/2016. The learned counsel on both sides submit that in view of the said settlement report, FAO (OS) 186/2016 has since been disposed of leaving the parties to approach this Court for appropriate orders in these cases in its wake.

6. After the settlement report had been submitted by the mediator to the learned division bench in FAO (OS) 186/2016, pursuant to the liberty granted earlier, the learned counsel representing the plaintiffs of the third suit has obtained the settlement report along with Family Settlement therewith in original from the file of FAO(OS) 186/2016 and brought the same on record of CS(OS) 1677/2010.

7. Against the above backdrop, joint applications have been moved by the parties to the first and third suit on the respective files, they being IA Nos. 12144/2016 in CS(OS) 966/2008 and IA No. 12145/2016 in CS (OS) 1677/2010. The parties by these applications, under Order 23 Rule 3 CPC, pray for compromise decrees to be passed governing both the said cases affirming inter alia that the compromise has been entered upon out of their own free will and volition. The applications are supported by the affidavits of all parties to these suits/Family Settlement/Mediation Report. The plaintiffs in the second suit, it being CS(OS) 1340/2009, have come up with another application under order 23 Rule 1 CPC (IA No. 12280/2016) praying for the said suit to be disposed of as settled in the light of the above-noted Family Settlement, it reflecting the claim in the said suit having been satisfied.

8. Pertinent to note here that in the Family Settlement dated 23rd August, 2016, the defendants in the first suit, i.e. CS(OS) 966/2008, have been described as parties No. 1 to 5 respectively whereas the plaintiffs of the said first suit i.e. CS(OS) 966/2008 have been described as party No.6 (i) and (ii) respectively. Ms. Daman Pal Kaur Anand (first plaintiff of the second suit i.e. CS(OS) 1340/2009) is also a signatory to the said Family Settlement, she being referred to as the confirming party. The Family Settlement, inter alia, mentions that the first and third suits had been consolidated in terms of the earlier orders of this Court and thereafter are being tried together, they being referred to as "the partition suits".

9. The settlement terms as set out in the Family Settlement dated 23rd August, 2016 may be extracted as under:-

"13. Both partition suits are defended to by parties 1 to 6. Party

- e) Monthly rent realized from the ground floor of the said property paid by M/s Samara India Pvt Ltd., is about 5.75 lacs per month, which is distributed amongst parties 1 to 6. The said lease is continuing. The parties have agreed to continue with the said lease deed till the said property is sold.
- f) The said lessee has deposited the security amount in the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi at New Delhi. The parties will file an appropriate application for release of the interest amount earned on the said FDRs, if released, will be handed over to the Mediator Mr. Ravinder Singh Chandhiok who will deposit the same with the office of the L& DO as fees for mutation/conversion of the said industrial plot from lease hold to free hold.

g)	All the parties within one month of execution of this Settlement shall also apply to the office of the L& DO for mutation/substitution of their names in the records. The expense for said mutation/substitution including the demand/fee raised by the concerned authority, before allowing the said application of the parties, shall be borne equally by all the parties i.e 1/6th each.
h)	Party Nos. 1 to 6 have agreed that they shall pay and clear all the dues and charges, as levied and demanded by the concerned authorities and shall make clear and marketable title free from all legal impediments.
i)	Since the said property is leasehold, therefore all the parties within one month of their application for mutation being allowed, shall apply for conversion of the aforesaid property from leasehold into freehold. If the amount required for conversion is more than the amount of interest received as mentioned above, then each of the six parties shall contribute equally towards conversion of aforesaid property from leasehold to freehold. Further, all the parties shall also contribute equally towards any other statutes.
j)	After mutation and deposit of conversion charges Deed of conveyance shall be got executed in favour of parties 1 to 6 themselves and/or in the name of proposed transferee (if permissible by paramount Lessor).
k)	The parties will try to sell the aforesaid property (leasehold or freehold as the case may be) to the buyer giving the best price. Property on being sold shall be transferred by due execution of sale deed/ transfer deed in favour of purchaser /transferee by all the parties herein upon receipt of their respective shares. At the time of sale of the property, if the prospective buyer wants the vacant possession of the entire property, then

	the Party Nos. 1 to 5 have agreed that they will get the possession of the First Floor of the said property vacated from their tenant(s).
l)	All the parties have agreed to maintain status quo with respect to the construction, possession and ownership rights in the aforesaid property till implementation of the above settlement. It is specifically agreed that no party shall carry out any unauthorized construction on the said property or create any third party rights till implementation of this Agreement.
m)	It is agreed that before entering into an Agreement for sale with respect to the aforesaid Industrial Plot, the market value for the property at 59/7, New Rohtak Road, Delhi will be ascertained with mutual consent of all the parties herein so as to determine the 1/6th share money that will become payable to the Party No.6 (i) and (ii) towards their share in 59/7, New Rohtak Road, New Delhi. Upon receipt of their share money in 59/7, New Rohtak Road, New Delhi, Party No. 6 (i) and (ii) shall execute requisite document thereby relinquishing their respective rights, title, interest and possession in the said property in favour of the Party No. 1 to 5 or their nominee as advised by them.
n)	If the parties, are unable to agree on the buyer to whom the said property is to be sold and/or with respect to the implementation of this settlement a dispute arises amongst the parties herein, then the same shall be first referred to the Mediator Mr. Ravinder Singh Chandhiok.
o)	On payment of amounts, as detailed above with respect to the both the properties i.e 59/7, New Rohtak Road, New Delhi 110 005 and 7/20, Kirti Nagar Industrial Area, New Delhi, the issue of partition of estate belonging to Late Mrs. Harbans Kaur shall stand finalized and settled.
