Kunjabihari Singh, lodged a complaint dated 27.04.2022 and alleging that on the same day, the petitioner herein made criminal trespass into his homestead land by holding a spade and attempted to kill his brother and wife and also threatened with his service gun on the previous dates. After 3 months i.e. on 29.07.2022, the Officer-in-Charge, Thoubal Police registered a case being FIR No. 127(7)2022 TBL PS U/S 447/307/34 IPC against the accused person. Accordingly, the above FIR was registered.

[3.1] The complainant stated that with respect to the homestead land under patta No. 33/1464 (New) of Khangabok, Thoubal Teshil covered by C.S. Dag No. 4582 measuring an area of 0.4371 hectares was purchased by him from one Laishram Birendra Singh by executing a

The said homestead land was transferred by Laishram Birendra Singh to one Saikhom Kunjabihari Singh(informant/complainant) vide Mut.Case N0. 131/ASO/TBL of 2009 and became the absolute owner. Then, the land was disposed of in series of transaction one piece after another piece in favour of the present petitioner and her daughter namely Laishram (O) Mache @ Brojeshwari Devi in the following manners as:

- (i) That the said Saikhom Kunjabihari Singh disposed of a piece of Ingkhol measuring 0.2509 hectare corresponding to a "Sangam (in local term) out of total areas measuring 0.4371 hectares in consideration of Rs. 30,000/- on 02.03.2010 in favour of the petitioner No. 1 (Sale Deed No. 237/2010 on 04.03.2010), thus the name of the petitioner No. 1 along with S. Thereafter, the petitioner No. 1 become the absolute owner of the joint two pieces of Ingkhols measuring an area of 0.3764 hectare altogether. Now the petitioner

[3.4] It is stated that the complainant S. Kunjabihari has full knowledge of the series of transactions and he cannot deny being one of the witness in the Registered Sale Deed being No. 1092/2015 dated 21.05.2015. The complainant S. Kunjabihari lodged a false complaint with 'Meeyamgi Numit' conducted by the Chief Minister and complained for restoration of his land and the matter was forwarded to the Vigilance Anti-corruption and accordingly, FIR No. 09(11)2022 VGL PS U/Ss 120-B r/w 420 IPC & 13(2) r/w 13(1)(d) of PC Act 1988 was registered. The petitioners and Laishram Mache Devi @ Brojeshwari Devi jointly approached the learned Sessions Judge, Thoubal for granting anticipatory bail being Cril.Misc.(AB) Case No. 118 of 2021 and interim order was granted as police submitted that there is no ground for arresting the petitioner. Hence, the bail was disposed of vide order dated 10.02.2022. On 05.07.2022, the petitioner No. 1's daughter namely Laishram Mache @

Brojeshwari Devi was arrested and she was taken into custody and later on released on bail.

[3.5] It is stated that S. Kunjabihari Singh also filed another complaint i.e. FIR No. 115(12)2019 TBL PS U/S 193/205/209/468/420/120-B, IPC and the petitioner No. 1 had filed one anticipatory bail being AB No. 84 of 2019 before this Court and vide order dated 20.12.2019 interim protection was given to her. It is stated that the dispute is purely civil in nature and the complainant S. Kunjabihari Singh in connivance with the police harassed the petitioner. It is prayed that bail may be granted and the petitioner will abide by the conditions imposed by this Court.

[3.6] The respondent did not file any objection to the bail application. Vide order dated 12.07.2022 this Court directed the respondent not to arrest the petitioners.

[4] AB No. 84 of 2019 is arising out of the complaint dated 25.11.2019 by S. Kunjabihari to the Superintendent of Police, Thoubal for taking necessary action against the 2 (two) Revenue Officers and 4 (four) private respondents. This is the first case in this batch of cases and the facts of the present case is similar to that of AB No. 30 of 2022 where an FIR was registered by Vigilance and Anti-Corruption Police Station on a complaint submitted by the complainant herein to the Chief Minister, Manipur. The present FIR was registered on 16.12.2019 being FIR No. 115(12)2019 TBL PS U/S 193/205/209/468/420/120-B, IPC for occurrence on 07.04.2015. The facts of the complaint is not reproduced herein for the sake of gravity and the sum and substance of the allegation is that the complainant's share of 0.1255 hectare of remaining land was cancelled vide Mut.Case No. 553 of 2015 order dated 07.04.2015 passed by the accused Revenue Officers by fabrication of the record, cheating and criminal conspiracy with the private parties.

[4.1] Vide order dated 20.12.2019, the petitioner was protected under interim order and the same order has been extended from time to time. The contents of the present petition are almost similar to the contents of the AB No. 30 of 2022 and the same are not reproduced. It is stated that the present dispute arising out of the civil dispute and the complainant/respondent No. 5 herein in connivance with the police is harassing the petitioner. It is stated that the petitioner herein also lodged a complaint dated 05.12.2019 to the Officer-in-Charge, Thoubal Police Station against the respondent No. 5 with respect to the cheating, impersonation and fabrication of her signature with respect to the sale deed but no action was taken. There are pending revenue cases in respect of the disputed property.

[4.2] The State respondents filed objection to the bail application. It is stated that the Revenue Officers were granted anticipatory bail by the learned Sessions Judge, Thoubal vide orders dated 20.12.2019 and 02.01.2020. It is stated that ASO Thoubal passed an order in Mut.Case No. 9/AS & SO/TBL/2014 dated 02.04.2014 and Mut.Case No. 553 of 2015 dated 07.04.2015 without examining any sale deed. It is stated that there is prima facie materials against the petitioners in the case. It is prayed that, the bail may be rejected. The respondent No. 5 (complainant) also filed objection. The petitioner along with officials are accused of forging the signature of the complainant and fabricating the record of right manufacturing illegal documents. It is prayed that the bail may be rejected.

[5] Heard Mr. N. Jotendro, learned senior counsel assisted by Mr. Murtaza Ahmed, learned counsel for the petitioner, Mr. Y. Ashang, learned PP for the State respondents, Mr. L. Diko, learned counsel for the private respondent No. 2 in AB No. 47 of 2022 and Mr. Ph. Sanajaoba, learned counsel for the respondent No. 5 (complainant) in AB No. 84 of 2019.

[6] Mr. N. Jotendro, learned senior counsel for the petitioner, submits that the present case is purely civil dispute between the parties and there are litigations in the Civil as well as the Revenue Courts. 2 (two) FIRs No. 9(11)2021 VGL. PS U/Ss 120-B r/w 420IPC & 13(2) r/w 13(1)(d) of PC Act 1988 and 115(12)2019 TBL PS U/S 193/205/209/468/420/120-B, IPC are basically arising out of the same allegation, one addressed to the OC, Thoubal PS by Shri S. Kunjabihari Singh and other addressed to the Chief Minister, Manipur submitted to the Chief Minister, Manipur in 'Meeyamgi Numit'. Then, the third FIR being FIR No. 127(7)2022 TBL PS U/S. 447/307/34 IPC is arising out of the trespass and attempt to murder.

In FIR No. 115(12)2019 TBL PS U/S 193/205/209/468/420/120-B, IPC, the Revenue Officers were granted absolute anticipatory bail by the Ld. Sessions Judge, Thoubal by separate orders. Perhaps the bail orders were not challenged and attained finality.

Mr. N. Jotendro, learned senior counsel, prays that the private accused, i.e., petitioners in this set of applications herein, are also entitled to the same benefit and parity along with officials of the Revenue Department. He further submits that except for the bald allegation, there is no material to attract the offences under Section 307 IPC in absence of any injury report or other relevant materials. He further submits that the present cases are filed by the complainant in connivance with the police to harass the petitioner in civil dispute between them. Learned senior counsel has pointed out to the fact that the complaints lodged by the petitioner against Shri S. Kunjabihari Singh have not been taken up by the police for the reason best known to them. He prays that the case of allegation and fabrication of document and cheating can be investigated while the petitioners are on bail as done with the case of the official accused. He prays that the interim bail may be made absolute with such condition as imposed by this Court and the petitioner will abide by all such conditions.

[7] Mr. Y. Ashang, learned PP for the State respondent, submits that the petitioners are alleged to have committed serious offences including an attempt to murder and their interim bail was rejected by the Ld. Sessions Judge, Thoubal due to their non-corporation. He prays that the bail application may be rejected.

[8] Mr. L.Diko, learned counsel for the respondent No. 2 (complainant) namely S. Kunjabihari Singh in AB No. 47 of 2022 states that the complaint filed by the petitioner herein against the complainant is for forgery and the same photographs with the complainant holding license gun in 2022 was already filed in criminal case before the Ld. CJM, Thoubal in 2020. The petitioners have not come to this Court with clean hand and hence, their application may be rejected.

[9] Mr. Ph. Sanajaoba, learned counsel for the respondent No. 5/ complainant (S. Kunjabihari Singh) in AB No. 84 of 2019, submits that the whole allegation of the complainant is established by a report dated 24.09.2021 submitted by the AS & SO-VII TBL to the Director Settlement and Land Revenue, Manipur stating that the complainant name was cancelled from the land record by the revenue officials and private accused by fabricating documents. He prays that the bail application may be rejected.

[10] Considered the rival submission of the learned counsel for the parties, perused the documents on record and the provisions of law in the regard.

[11] It is seen that the present cases are arising out of property dispute between the complainant and the petitioners. The allegation is that the complainant name has been deleted from the land record by the petitioners in connivance with the revenue officers stealthily.

[12] Last FIR being FIR No. 127(7)2022 TBL PS U/S. 447/307/34 IPC is the outcome of the property dispute where there is allegation of trespassing and attempt to murder. While the complaint lodged by the complainant has been registered after 3 months, the complaint lodged by the petitioners against the complainant were never taken up by the police.

[13] Materials attracting Section 307 IPC are lacking in the present case.

[14] This Court is of the opinion that investigation can be conducted without taking the petitioner into custodial interrogation. Moreover, the Revenue Officers have already been granted anticipatory bail by the various orders of the Ld. Sessions Judge, Thoubal. In view of the above observations, the bail applications are allowed. In case of arrest the petitioners be released on bail with PR bond of each Rs. 50,000/- and with a surety of each like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer in each of the FIRs i.e. (1) FIR Nos. 9(11)2021 VGL. PS U/Ss 120-B r/w 420IPC & 13(2) r/w 13(1)(d) of PC Act 1988, (2) FIR No. 115(12)2019 TBL PS U/S 193/205/209/468/420/120-B, IPC and (3) FIR No. 127(7)2022 TBL PS U/S. 447/307/34 IPC subject to the conditions that:

- (a) The petitioners shall furnish personal bond of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand) each with one surety each of the like amount.
- (b) The petitioners shall co-operate with the investigation.
- (c) The petitioners shall not tamper with the evidence or influence witnesses.
- (d) The petitioners shall not leave Manipur without permission of Ld. Sessions Judge, Thoubal.
- (e) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the respondent police is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law.

[15] It is made clear that the observations made in this order are limited to the question of grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners and the merits of the complaint/case have not been delved into.

[16] Bail Applications are allowed.

[17] Send a copy of this order to the OC, Thoubal PS and Vigilance & Anti-Corruption Police Station for information.
