ORDER

08-11-2023

Siddharth Mridul (C.J.),

Heard Mr. L. Shashibhushan, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the appellants and Mr. H.S. Paonam, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents.

Our attention has been invited by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellants to the order dated 30-10-2023 in MC(WA) No. 178 of 2022 (Ref.: WA No. 39 of 2018) rendered by a Coordinate Bench.

"[20] We have gone through the materials on record and considered the rival submissions made at bar. After floating fresh NIT by cancelling the impugned NIT of 2017, the cause in the writ petitions as well as writ appeals has not survived anymore. The NIT of 2017 is no longer in existence after its cancellation by IOC and floating new NIT in its place. Reviving the NIT of 2017 which was quashed by learned Single Judge and cancelled by IOC itself during pendency of the appeals, will be on the threshold of contempt of court. Accordingly, the application is allowed and writ appeal being WA No. 39 of 2018 is closed."

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the parties state in unison that in view of the foregoing, the present appeals have also been rendered infructuous and may accordingly be closed.

Directed accordingly.

The present writ appeals stand closed.
