2. When the matters are taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the official respondents submits that the respondent Police have completed the investigation and the charge sheet will be filed within a week.

3. Since the investigation is already completed, the very purpose for filing the present petitions seeking quashment of the FIRs does not survive. Therefore, these Petitions are dismissed as infructuous. However, the petitioners are at liberty to challenge the charge sheet. Connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
