ORDER

This Criminal Original Petition is filed seeking for a direction to the second respondent Police not to harass the petitioner under the guise of enquiry basing on a complaint given by the third respondent.

2. It is submitted by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that the third respondent has pledged the gold jewels to the extent of 28.5 sovereigns with the petitioner and the petitioner has admittedly sold them away as the respondent No.3 has not redeemed the same by paying the loan that he borrowed.

3. It is submitted by the learned counsel appearing for the third respondent that the petitioner has sold the jewelry of the third respondent even without intimating that she is about to sell the jewels.

4. The learned Government Advocate (criminal side) appearing for the respondents Police, on the other hand, submits that the petitioner has no license for conducting such business and there are other similar complaints against the petitioner and the complaint given by the third respondent is being taken up and the respondents Police will make enquiry. It is also submitted that inspite of issuance of notice, the petitioner has not appeared for enquiry yesterday and filed this petition.

5. Considering the circumstances, the respondents Police are directed to dispose of the complaint given by the third respondent and take appropriate action, in case the petitioner has committed any error.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
