2. The case of the prosecution is that on 24.07.2023, the petitioner snatched the cellphone from the possession of his wife Ramya, erupted quarrel, in which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant Balaji, his wife Ramya and mother-in-law with wooden log and aruval. In the said incident the defacto complainant, his wife and his mother-in-law sustained injuries. They were admitted in the hospital. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He has been falsely implicated in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that the only defacto complainant has been discharged from the hospital and other injured persons are still in hospital, taking treatment.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that all the injured persons were discharged from the hospital yesterday (15.08.2023).

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and the gravity of offences, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
